The Redesigned Form 990 Understanding the New Requirements

Piccerelli, Gilstein & Company, LLP is hosting a complimentary seminar focused on the complex redesign of IRS Form 990. Non-profit executives should become familiar with the new Form 990 and its revised reporting requirements. This program will prepare you by highlighting areas of concern you will face when filing the form, including:

- New core elements added by the IRS
- Compliance
- Systems you should have in place to gather the information
- Updated reporting procedures
- Frequently Asked Questions
- Definitions that are key to implementation
