

Workplace Fact Sheet

FOR RHODE ISLAND EMPLOYEES

If you have been impacted by Coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) and are quarantined and unable to work, or your workplace has been temporarily closed, please review the following information about assistance available through State programs. The Department of Labor and Training (DLT) will do all that we can to ensure impacted Rhode Islanders receive the benefits for which they are eligible.

If you are unable to work, but your place of business remains open, you may be eligible for Temporary Disability Insurance (TDI).

- To apply for TDI, please visit <https://dltweb.dlt.ri.gov/TDIReserve/Home>.
- Be sure to clearly indicate on your application that you have been impacted by COVID-19.
- Benefits may be available for you to care for yourself or a family member that has been impacted through Temporary Caregiver Insurance (TCI).
- For more information about TDI please visit <http://www.dlt.ri.gov/tdi/tdifaqs.htm>.
- For COVID-19 related claims, DLT will waive the seven-day minimum amount of time that claimants must be out of work to qualify for TDI/TCI benefits.
- For individuals under quarantine, DLT will waive the required medical certification, and instead will allow them to temporary qualify via self-attestation that they were under quarantine due to COVID-19.

If you are out of work and are not being compensated, you may be eligible for Unemployment Insurance (UI).

- If your place of business closes, or you are directed by your employer to remain home, you may be eligible for unemployment insurance (UI).
- To apply for UI, please visit <http://www.dlt.ri.gov/ui/fileclaim2.htm>.
- Please be sure to indicate that your claim is a result of COVID-19.
- DLT will waive the seven-day waiting period for UI claims related to COVID-19.

Additional Resources:

- Most Rhode Island private sector workers are eligible for earned sick and safe leave. The benefits provided by this leave enable employees to take time off from work to care for themselves or family members that have been affected by COVID-19.

- Based on the size of your employer, earned leave may be paid or unpaid. For information about earned sick leave please visit <http://www.dlt.ri.gov/ls/pdfs/HSFWfactsheet.pdf>.
- Please check with your employer regarding their sick leave policies, the amount of time that you may have earned and may be available for use, and details about how to use this benefit.
- Some Rhode Island workers are covered by the Rhode Island Parental and Family Medical Leave Act and/or the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). Eligible employees may be able to take job-protected leave under this act to care for themselves or a family member that has been impacted by COVID-19. For information about FMLA please visit: <https://www.dol.gov/agencies/whd/fmla>.

If you have questions about any of these resources, please contact us by email at dlt.covid19@dlt.ri.gov or by phone at (401) 462-2020. Please be sure to provide your name, telephone number and email address. A DLT team member will respond to inquiries in the order they are received.

FOR RHODE ISLAND EMPLOYERS

If you are temporarily ceasing or limiting operations as a result of COVID-19, please contact the DLT to discuss how we can provide assistance.
